1997–1998 Our Children Index

August/September 1997

6 Volunteer Nation: Will the President's Summit for America's Future recharge this great tradition?
8 Learning by Giving: Students learn to care by serving their community 10 Why Volunteer? There are many benefits to volunteer work for volunteers themselves
11 Lunch with Lois: Marian Wright Edelman
12 OurPTA on Advocacy: A New IDEA: How the special education law will affect your child 14 Public Dollars, Private Schools: Has a recent Supreme Court decision opened the door to vouchers?
16 The Making of a Winner: A PTA meets challenges head-on 17 OurPTA on Arts Education: Reflections Virtual Gallery Debuts on www.pta.org
18 The 101st Annual National PTA Convention
21 Idaho Puts a Face on PTA: Personal touch increases membership
21 OurPTA on Membership: Involving Everyone
22 Accenting the "S" in PTSA: Award-winner reorganizes to increase student involvement
23 OurPTA on Leadership: Checklist for a Sound Start to the PTA Year
24 Leading the Way: A PTA works to create permanent schools for its students 25 Children and Air Pollution: PTA adopts clean air resolution 26 PTA Attends Family Re-Union 6
28 OurPTA Online: The National PTA offers two exciting new websites!
32 Lois Jean White: Meet the new National PTA President 34 Red Light, Green Light: Why don't we talk to boys about sex the way we talk to girls?
by Margaret Sagarese and Charlene C. Giannetti 36 Learning in the Early Grades: An excerpt from What Every Parent Needs to Know About 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Grades
by Toni S. Bickart, Diane Trister Dodge, and Judy R. Jablon
38 Chalkboard: Dreams Come True
by Michael Smith, 1997 Hearst Award Winner
39 National PTA Board of Directors

October 1997

6 The Great National Test Debate: Are national tests the best way to help schools and students work to higher standards?
6 Why Voluntary National Tests?
by Gary W. Phillips
7 National Tests: Interesting Theory, Bad Practice
by Theodore Sizer
10 The Community Schoolhouse: A Fort Worth middle school embraces standards—and nontraditional assessment
11 Lunch with Lois: Charles Haynes
13 Focus: African-American Males: Developing a personal best awards program with your PTA
by Alexandris Townsend
14 Teaming for Teens: A PTA brings its community together on behalf of its youth 15 A Cool Move: Parents, meet your school bus driver
by Betty Royer
16 Our PTA on Leadership: Leadership for adults
16 Annual Resources for PTAs Distributed
17 Spaced-out Learning: Students explore the solar system
18 TEAM Winners: Show the Way in PTA Growth
24 OurPTA Online: Discussion Groups
26 Hand in Hand: PTA and the Mattel Foundation team up by Alfred Ramirez
27 Catalyst for Change: The new Head Start performance standards
by Maggie Holmes
28 Protecting Volunteers: PTA members benefit from new law 32 Playing it Safe: Can playgrounds be hazardous to children's health?
34 Children and Grief
by Linda Garris Christian 36 Writing Portfolios at Home
by Bonnie M. Faiman
38 Chalkboard: Teaching Spanish as a Community Service
by Rita A. Oleksak
39 National PTA State Office Directory

November 1997

6 Selling Out Kids: Commercialism in public schools
by Susan Herzog
8 Not Business as Usual: Washington State PTA encourages members to develop positive relationships with business
11 Lunch with Lois: Ina Hughes
13 Making a Difference: A PTA restores a community's land and faith
by Jennifer Pietrus
14 Score 100 for Public Education: A PTA helps keep top 8th-graders in public school
15 Better Kids TV: New Children's Television Act provisions are in effect
16 OurPTA on Advocacy:Reach Out and Team Up: The positive power of coalitions
19 Learning First Alliance: A national education coalition is born 20 Safety First: Advocates winner makes its school safe for children
21 TEAM Winners Reach Out
24 OurPTA Online: The Web-News Connection
25 Building the PTA Web: PTA and Family Education Network announce national agreement
26 OurPTA on Leadership: Nominating committees
27 Be Aware: PTA sponsors community-wide safety awareness program 28 Christmas in May: A New Jersey PTA provides books to students in the Virgin Islands
by Dianne Merchant
29 Toy Story: Toy safety awareness is crucial 32 Keeping Your Child Safe
34 Public Schools and Censorship
by Martha S. Watterson
36 All for One: Parents, communities, and the nongraded primary school
by Garth Petrie, Patricia Lindauer, Rebecca McKinney, and Joe Bennett 38 Chalkboard: How I Learned to Appreciate Opera
by Mary Renck Jalongo

December/January 1997–98

6 Building Children's Minds: Early childhood development for a better future
by Stanley I. Greenspan
8 The Best Start: Rochester PTAs and Head Start join together for kids
by Joan Kuersten
11 Lunch with Lois: The Puzzle Place
13 They Keep the Light On For You: A PTA lights up a school to reach out to its community
by Joan Kuersten
14 Safeguarding Our Children: Two PTAs take their own approach to safeguarding children
by Joan Kuersten
15 OurPTA on Leadership: Mid-year PTA checklist
by Lee Ann Clark
16 A Safe Winter Wonderland: Some tips to prevent children's injuries 17 Transcending Conflict: A PTA brings its parents, teachers, and administration together
by Joan Kuersten
18 More Than a Good Idea: A PTA organizes and advocates for its special-needs kids
by Joan Kuersten
19 TEAM Awards recognize outreach efforts
by Patricia Sullivan
24 OurPTA Online: 101 Years of PTA History
by Melissa Henderson
25 Parents on Top: Washington State PTA hosts second Parent Involvement Summit
by Michele Anciaux
26 Involving Parents—Setting the Standard: The National Standards for Parent/Family Involvement Series, Part I: Communication
by Patricia Sullivan
28 National PTA Bylaws Amendments
29 A Wealth of Smart Arts Programs: Meet the 1997 Reflections grant program recipients
by Martha Watterson
32 Right and Wrong Online
34 Learning to Read: What research says parents can do to help their children
by Richard L. Allington and Sherry Guice 36 The New Ratings Game: The revised TV ratings in effect this fall provide parents with a useful tool
by Victoria M. Duran
38 Chalkboard: A Culture of Quality
by Ron Berger

February 1998

6 Making Students Better People: What role should schools play in shaping children's character?
by Douglas Seibold
8 Building Character Builds Self-respect
by Joan Kuersten
11 Lunch with Lois: Decker Anstrom of the National Cable Television Association 13 Getting to Know You…Translates to making new friends at Harriet Bishop Elementary School in Minnesota
by Joan Kuersten
14 OurPTA on Membership: Targeting your membership
by Michelle Byrnes
15 Helping Parents Help Their Children: The National Standards for Parent/Family Involvement Series, Part II: Parenting
by Patricia Sullivan
16 Armstrong Middle School PTA's Fall Family Roundup
by Heidi Mitchell
17 Arts Are Us: Bringing a rainbow of arts experiences to Gray, Maine
by Deb Gellerson
18 High Schoolers: Mom and Dad Know Best
by Patricia Sullivan
19 Keeping Those Smiles Bright: California's 31st District PTSA opens the doors to dental health
by Carla Niño
20 OurPTA on Advocacy: Half the Battle: Communicating Your Message
by Susan Kushner
21 Forecast of Children's Issues for 1998
24 OurPTA on Leadership: The Fine Art of Listening
by Lee Ann Clark
25 Getting Rooted: Students explore their heritage in Connecticut
by Joan Kuersten

1997–1998 Our Children Index

August/September 1997

6 Volunteer Nation: Will the President's Summit for America's Future recharge this great tradition?
8 Learning by Giving: Students learn to care by serving their community
10 Why Volunteer? There are many benefits to volunteer work for volunteers themselves
11 Lunch with Lois: Marian Wright Edelman
12 OurPTA on Advocacy: A New IDEA: How the special education law will affect your child 14 Public Dollars, Private Schools: Has a recent Supreme Court decision opened the door to vouchers?
16 The Making of a Winner: A PTA meets challenges head-on 17 OurPTA on Arts Education: Reflections Virtual Gallery Debuts on www.pta.org
18 The 101st Annual National PTA Convention
21 Idaho Puts a Face on PTA: Personal touch increases membership
21 OurPTA on Membership: Involving Everyone
22 Accenting the "S" in PTSA: Award-winner reorganizes to increase student involvement
23 OurPTA on Leadership: Checklist for a Sound Start to the PTA Year
24 Leading the Way: A PTA works to create permanent schools for its students
25 Children and Air Pollution: PTA adopts clean air resolution
26 PTA Attends Family Re-Union 6
28 OurPTA Online: The National PTA offers two exciting new websites!
32 Lois Jean White: Meet the new National PTA President
34 Red Light, Green Light: Why don't we talk to boys about sex the way we talk to girls?
by Margaret Sagarese and Charlene C. Giannetti
36 Learning in the Early Grades: An excerpt from What Every Parent Needs to Know About 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Grades
by Toni S. Bickart, Diane Trister Dodge, and Judy R. Jablon
38 Chalkboard: Dreams Come True
by Michael Smith, 1997 Hearst Award Winner
39 National PTA Board of Directors

October 1997

6 The Great National Test Debate: Are national tests the best way to help schools and students work to higher standards?
6 Why Voluntary National Tests?
by Gary W. Phillips
7 National Tests: Interesting Theory, Bad Practice
by Theodore Sizer
10 The Community Schoolhouse: A Fort Worth middle school embraces standards—and nontraditional assessment
11 Lunch with Lois: Charles Haynes
13 Focus: African-American Males: Developing a personal best awards program with your PTA
by Alexandris Townsend
14 Teaming for Teens: A PTA brings its community together on behalf of its youth 15 A Cool Move: Parents, meet your school bus driver
by Betty Royer
16 Our PTA on Leadership: Leadership for adults
16 Annual Resources for PTAs Distributed
17 Spaced-out Learning: Students explore the solar system
18 TEAM Winners: Show the Way in PTA Growth
24 OurPTA Online: Discussion Groups
26 Hand in Hand: PTA and the Mattel Foundation team up
by Alfred Ramirez
27 Catalyst for Change: The new Head Start performance standards
by Maggie Holmes
28 Protecting Volunteers: PTA members benefit from new law
32 Playing it Safe: Can playgrounds be hazardous to children's health?
34 Children and Grief
by Linda Garris Christian
36 Writing Portfolios at Home
by Bonnie M. Faiman
38 Chalkboard: Teaching Spanish as a Community Service
by Rita A. Oleksak
39 National PTA State Office Directory

November 1997

6 Selling Out Kids: Commercialism in public schools
by Susan Herzog
8 Not Business as Usual: Washington State PTA encourages members to develop positive relationships with business
11 Lunch with Lois: Ina Hughes
13 Making a Difference: A PTA restores a community's land and faith
by Jennifer Pietrus
14 Score 100 for Public Education: A PTA helps keep top 8th-graders in public school
15 Better Kids TV: New Children's Television Act provisions are in effect
16 OurPTA on Advocacy:Reach Out and Team Up: The positive power of coalitions
19 Learning First Alliance: A national education coalition is born
20 Safety First: Advocates winner makes its school safe for children
21 TEAM Winners Reach Out
24 OurPTA Online: The Web-News Connection
25 Building the PTA Web: PTA and Family Education Network announce national agreement
26 OurPTA on Leadership: Nominating committees
27 Be Aware: PTA sponsors community-wide safety awareness program
28 Christmas in May: A New Jersey PTA provides books to students in the Virgin Islands
by Dianne Merchant
29 Toy Story: Toy safety awareness is crucial
32 Keeping Your Child Safe
34 Public Schools and Censorship
by Martha S. Watterson
36 All for One: Parents, communities, and the nongraded primary school
by Garth Petrie, Patricia Lindauer, Rebecca McKinney, and Joe Bennett 38 Chalkboard: How I Learned to Appreciate Opera
by Mary Renck Jalongo

December/January 1997–98

6 Building Children's Minds: Early childhood development for a better future
by Stanley I. Greenspan
8 The Best Start: Rochester PTAs and Head Start join together for kids
by Joan Kuersten
11 Lunch with Lois: The Puzzle Place
13 They Keep the Light On For You: A PTA lights up a school to reach out to its community
by Joan Kuersten
14 Safeguarding Our Children: Two PTAs take their own approach to safeguarding children
by Joan Kuersten
15 OurPTA on Leadership: Mid-year PTA checklist
by Lee Ann Clark
16 A Safe Winter Wonderland: Some tips to prevent children's injuries
17 Transcending Conflict: A PTA brings its parents, teachers, and administration together
by Joan Kuersten
18 More Than a Good Idea: A PTA organizes and advocates for its special-needs kids
by Joan Kuersten
19 TEAM Awards recognize outreach efforts
by Patricia Sullivan
24 OurPTA Online: 101 Years of PTA History
by Melissa Henderson
25 Parents on Top: Washington State PTA hosts second Parent Involvement Summit
by Michele Anciaux
26 Involving Parents—Setting the Standard: The National Standards for Parent/Family Involvement Series, Part I: Communication
by Patricia Sullivan
28 National PTA Bylaws Amendments
29 A Wealth of Smart Arts Programs: Meet the 1997 Reflections grant program recipients
by Martha Watterson
32 Right and Wrong Online
34 Learning to Read: What research says parents can do to help their children
by Richard L. Allington and Sherry Guice
36 The New Ratings Game: The revised TV ratings in effect this fall provide parents with a useful tool
by Victoria M. Duran
38 Chalkboard: A Culture of Quality
by Ron Berger

February 1998

6 Making Students Better People: What role should schools play in shaping children's character?
by Douglas Seibold
8 Building Character Builds Self-respect
by Joan Kuersten
11 Lunch with Lois: Decker Anstrom of the National Cable Television Association
13 Getting to Know You…Translates to making new friends at Harriet Bishop Elementary School in Minnesota
by Joan Kuersten
14 OurPTA on Membership: Targeting your membership
by Michelle Byrnes
15 Helping Parents Help Their Children: The National Standards for Parent/Family Involvement Series, Part II: Parenting
by Patricia Sullivan
16 Armstrong Middle School PTA's Fall Family Roundup
by Heidi Mitchell
17 Arts Are Us: Bringing a rainbow of arts experiences to Gray, Maine
by Deb Gellerson
18 High Schoolers: Mom and Dad Know Best
by Patricia Sullivan
19 Keeping Those Smiles Bright: California's 31st District PTSA opens the doors to dental health
by Carla Niño
20 OurPTA on Advocacy: Half the Battle: Communicating Your Message
by Susan Kushner
21 Forecast of Children's Issues for 1998
24 OurPTA on Leadership: The Fine Art of Listening
by Lee Ann Clark
25 Getting Rooted: Students explore their heritage in Connecticut
by Joan Kuersten

1997–1998 Our Children Index

28 OurPTA Online: Meeting Your Parenting Needs Online
by Melissa Krylowicz

29 One PTSA's Tribute: Lincoln Middle School's namesake comes home

32 The Silent Epidemic: Teens and sexually transmitted diseases by Susan Francis

34 "What Are You?": Multiracial families in America
by Patricia Sullivan

36 Eating Disorders: What parents need to know about anorexia and bulimia

38 Chalkboard: The Power of Storytelling by Jim Woodard

39 Founders Day 1998
by Patricia Sullivan

March 1998

6 Comprehensive School Health Programs: An idea whose time has come
by Joan Kuersten

8 Making Comprehensive School Health Programs a Priority: Showcasing one PTA's efforts

10 The National PTA and Comprehensive School Health

11 Lunch with Lois: General Colin L. Powell

14 Fairness First: A Maryland PTA promotes gender equity
by Joan Kuersten

16 Parents Are Integral to Student Learning: The National Standards for Parent/Family Involvement Series, Part III: Student Learning
by Patricia Sullivan

17 Homework Do's and Don't's by Linda Sonna

18 Our PTA on Leadership: Managing Conflict Through Collaboration
by Lee Ann Clark

19 Making the Arts Connection: A strong arts education curriculum at a Georgia elementary school by Nancy Carter

21 One Singular Sensation: A PTSA pulls off a show-stopping enrichment program
by Joan Kuersten

26 OurPTA Online: Tools for Building Membership Commitment
by Melissa Henderson

27 OurPTA on Membership: Make the Most of Your Time

28 Building Community via the Web: PTA teams up with Family Education Network by Diana Bohmer

29 Choosing Smart: A middle school PTSA takes on substance abuse
by Joan Kuersten

32 Mold and Children's Health
by Antoinette Tuscano

34 The Pesticide Threat: Pesticide misuse is a threat to our communities by Lynn R. Goldman

36 Dressing for Success: Opinions on dress codes are far from uniform
by Patricia Sullivan

38 Chalkboard: Parents and Mathematics Education by Kay Toliver

April 1998

6 The Public on Public Education: What do Americans think of their schools?
by Dreama Plybon Love

9 Maine PTA Delivers the Results
by Joan Kuersten

11 Lunch with Lois: David C. Berliner

13 It's Easy Being Green: A PTA in Texas expands its environmental program
by Joan Kuersten

14 Make Your House a "Green" House
by Edward Stermer

15 Safety First: A PTA makes child protection a priority by Joanne Ferrara

16 A Little Does So Much: The National Standards for Parent/Family Involvement Series, Part IV: Volunteering
by Patricia Sullivan

17 OurPTA on Membership: Student Power
by Michelle Byrnes

18 "Home" Improvement: A PTA near a major airport advocates to soundproof its school
by Joan Kuersten

19 Preparing Teachers as communicators: Utah PTA helps take it one step further by Elizabeth Jared and Patricia Sullivan

20 Taking the Scare Out of Science: An Arizona PTA makes science easy for a school and its families
by Joan Kuersten

22 OurPTA on Advocacy:School-Age Child Care
by Matia Finn-Stevenson

23 A School Check-up: What parents should know when checking out school buildings
by Susan Kushner

28 OurPTA on Leadership: Effective Meetings Q&A

29 Our PTA Online: Internet 101
by Melissa Henderson

32 Parents as Learning Partners
by Barbara N. Kupetz

34 Is Smaller Better? Schools move to reduce class sizes in grades K–3
by Patricia Sullivan

36 Calling the Shots: When it comes to school governance, who makes what decisions?
by William B. Ingram

38 Chalkboard: What This "Good" Teacher Didn't Know
by Dorothy Rich

May 1998

6 When Kids Get Hooked: What to do when substance-abuse prevention efforts fail
by Patricia Sullivan

8 Let's Use Common Sense: A PTA council educates parents in raising alcohol- and drug-free children
by Joan Kuersten

11 Lunch with Lois: James P. Comer, M.D.

13 Mi Familia: A Texas PTA council presents its first family-community conference
by Joan Kuersten

15 Learning Citizenship: Mock elections teach Alabama students the value of participation
by Patricia Sullivan

16 Making Parents Full Partners: The National Standards for Parent/Family Involvement Series, Part V: School Decision Making and Advocacy
by Patricia Sullivan

18 Taking Care of Business: A PTA trains students in babysitting
by Joan Kuersten

23 The 1998 National PTA Legislative Conference

24 School In the Good Ol' Summertime: A PTA's summer reading program packs 'em in
by Joan Kuersten

25 Endowing Our Future: The National PTA Endowment Fund
by Antoinette Tuscano

26 Choosing to Serve: Phoenix youth volunteer in their community
by Joan Kuersten

27 OurPTA on Leadership: Creating a Smooth Transition
by Lee Ann Clark

28 Our PTA Online Internet 101—Part 2
by Melissa Henderson

29 Our PTA on Membership: Prepare Your Successors
by Michelle Byrnes

32 Trash Talk: Recycling, precycling, and pay-as-you-throw programs
by Edward Stermer

34 Toward Equity: Bringing the community into the school by Judith A. Billings

36 Mingling the Generations: Bringing an elderly parent into your home by Terence McGowan

38 Chalkboard: Is Your Child Ready for Kindergarten? by Susan Anarino

June/July 1998

6 Technology in Our Schools: When it comes to computer technology, parents need to be well informed to make the right decisions for their schools by William L. Rukeyser

8 High-Tech Learning: A North Dakota PTA helps its school become techno-savvy
by Joan Kuersten

11 Lunch with Lois: PTA President Lois Jean White visits with Michael D. Casserly of the Council of the Great City Schools

13 PTA's European Congress: Did you know the PTA is at work across the Atlantic?
by Patricia Sullivan

14 Peace is the Tie That Binds: A PTA unites its Wisconsin community through mural-making
by Joan Kuersten

15 Summertime Arts: Children can get a jump on next year with these activities

16 Working with the Community Creates a Supportive Environment for Learning: The National Standards for Parent/ Family Involvement Series, Part VI: Collaborating with Community

18 Keeping Parents Connected: A PTA family resource center connects parents with their teens
by Joan Kuersten

20 OurPTA on Advocacy: A Place at the Table: Child Nutrition Programs

22 Reauthorization: Deja Vu All Over Again

24 Building Family Literacy: A PTA in Hawaii brings families together the "read and write" way
by Joan Kuersten

25 OurPTA on Leadership: "Thank You"
by Lee Ann Clark

25 OurPTA on Membership: Fostering Volunteerism
by Michelle Byrnes

28 Primary Rule: A PTA sponsors a grades 1–3 student council
by Joan Kuersten

29 OurPTA Online: Internet 101—Part 3
by Melissa Henderson

32 Empty Nest Syndrome: Starting a new phase of life
by Patricia Sullivan

34 The Right Decisions: It's up to parents to help kids understand the meaning of good decision making by George M. Cohen

36 A Vision for Achievement: Good science education depends on solid content and active learning

38 1997–1998 Our Children Index